Our Rainbow and its End

This term's like a rainbow
 That lingers in the sky,
 And linger grows the bow
 As each day passes by.
 Dearer than pots of gold
 Is the reward we'll find
 Before the last is o'er
 And the school's left behind.
 Pleasures so sweet and fair
 Riches could never lend
 As the joy we'll find
 At our bow's glowing end.

Winter at length is gone—
 Those days that passed so slow;
 The hills are bright with grass,

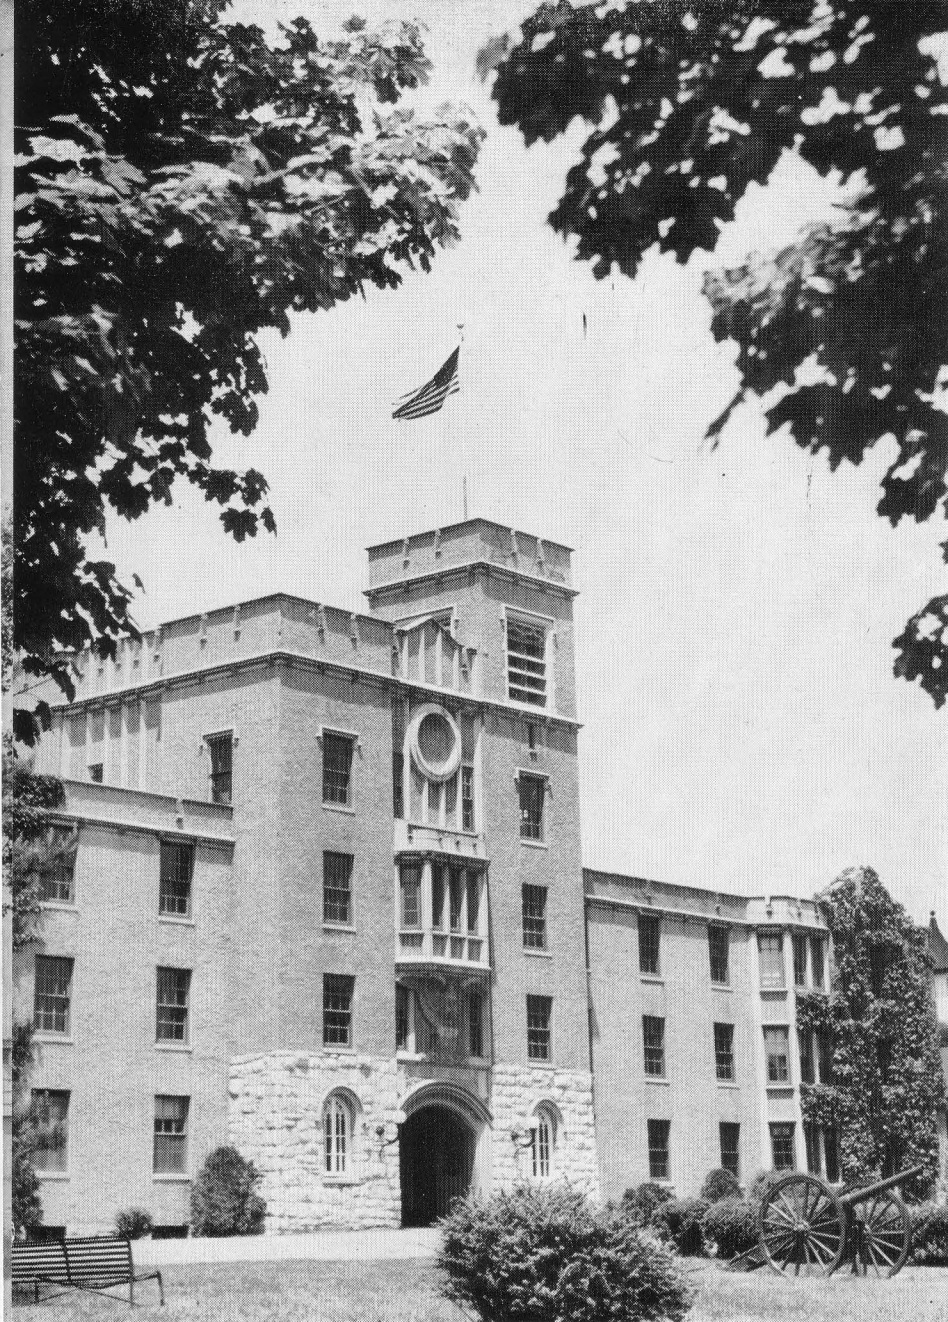

Where once they gleamed with snow.
Throughout the long, cold days
We dreamed of far off spring,
Of our last days toge'er
And the sweet joys they bring.
They've been our gleaming goal,
When books cease to offend—
Those days that end it all—
Our rainbow and its end.

"Old Men" long for finals
When all their toils are o'er;
The "Rats" fondest dream is
To be a rat no more.
The dogs will bark with glee
When the last drum has beat—

They'll have to howl no more
 When bugles blow retreat.
 "Old Men," "Rats," and dogs have
 Dreamings that sweetly blend;
 They long for finals' joys—
 Our rainbow and its end.

Feelings ineffable
 These sweet dreamings bestir,
 But they're naught as is felt
 When the "last rites" occur.
 There'll be plenty o' mirth
 When finals roll around,
 But, for each happy laugh,
 There will be a tear found.
 There'll be those in our midst

When we part—friend with friend—
Who'll leave us fore'er at
Our rainbow's glowing end.

They mean a lot to us,
Those boys who won't return;
We'll try to show them that
Before we all adjourn
It's hard to say good-bye
To those who won't be back,
But, 'till that last sad word,
Nothing for them shall lack.
Before they part from us,
On different trails to wend,
We'll show our love for them
At their last rainbow's End.

The Constant Name

In these times, when fortunes court,
In these days of fame,
Every man must "strut his stuff,"
Must have a "high-brow" name.

A "Trumpeter," in days of yore
A "Bugler" then was he,
"Musician" to his cadet friends,
These times demand all three.

Just take today; a rear-rank man,
A "Private" in the mass;
The social world hails him by
A "Private—First Class."

Now look again, a "Corporal" proud,
To every man a foe,
They've even dared to boost his name,
They called him—"N. C. O."

But what is worse, a "Platoon Guide,"
Now surely that sounds fine!
Has changed his name to sound like this,
A "Sergeant-Of-The-Line."

"Lieutenant" is not grand enough,
His name's been altered too,
He used to be just plain old "First,"
But now he's "Senior Lieu."

"The Captain," Sir: was the "Old Man"
To all his organization,
He's "Company Commander" now,
They've changed his appellation.

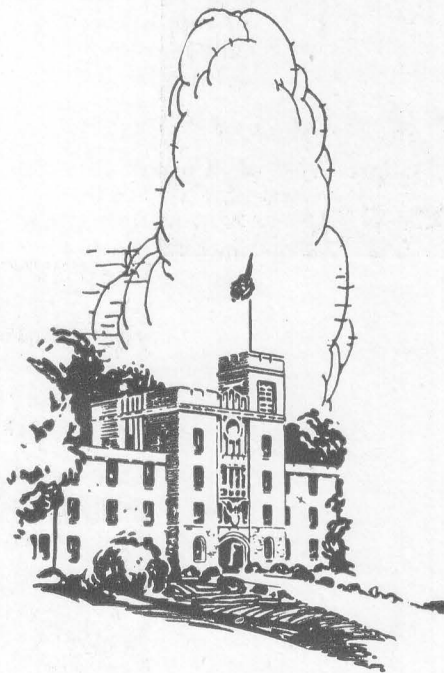

But there's one name, bear it with pride,
'Twill never change, don't fret,
The most high-sounding name of all,
The "A. M. A. Cadet."

AUGUSTA MILITARY ACADEMY
Fort Defiance, Va.

Miss Mary Belle Walker

Col. W. C. Louisell

DEDICATION

To

Miss Mary Belle Walker, whose many years of loyalty, interest, and service to Augusta endear her to all; whose sincerity, graciousness, and charming manner make her the ideal "office force",

And

To Colonel William C. Louisell, our commandant, who is a gentleman of the highest integrity, dependability, sincerity, and is leadership personified; a master instructor, both military and academic, and possessing a rare sense of humor, which qualities will always have him remembered as a gentleman of the highest character,

We, the staff of the 1950 "Recall",
Dedicate this publication.

FOREWORD

For this fiftieth volume of the RECALL we offer no apologies. We make this rather bold statement, realizing that we have made mistakes. For in preparing this book we have not been blind to our shortcomings. There are parts of this book you will not like—there are parts of it we don't like. In this we agree.

So touch lightly upon the features with dislikeable parts, and dwell upon those that appeal to you most. Only one thing we ask: Remember that our efforts to turn out as near as possible a RECALL that will please everyone have been untiring. Give us two and two for trying.

We fear that you if you have never heard the words “thirty coal” of “fifteen track” followed by your name; if you have never trod the weary path around “ye Old Clay Bowl”; if you have never “finned out” for a year and returned with “that high and mighty feeling”; if you have never seen Augusta soar high in victory or even go down in defeat; if you have never attended the dances; and lastly, if you have never heard the final word, “dismissed,” uttered by some sweet feminine voice—then, dear reader, you will miss a great deal that is to be found within this book. Because it is published solely by the cadets of the corps, for the cadets of the corps of today, the corps of yesterday, and the corps of tomorrow.

The purpose of this book is just what its name implies—to “Recall” fond memories of the days spent at Augusta.

History of Augusta Military Academy

Colonel Charles S. Roller, Jr.

In 1865, when the Civil-War torn Valley of Virginia had practically no education facilities at all, the Augusta Military Academy was founded by a young Confederate soldier named Charles S. Roller. His idea was to provide high school education for the soldiers whose education was interrupted by the great war. The young soldier, father of Col. C. S. Roller, Jr., the present owner and principal, named the school Augusta Male Academy. It started as a day school but it became so popular that it was later made a boarding school and renamed Augusta Military Academy.

THIS, however, was not the true beginning of Augusta. In 1742, the Reverend John Craig who was the first pastor of the historic Old Stone Church which adjoins the A. M. A. campus, started a small day school on the site of the present school. His students came from many miles around and walked or rode on horses to secure the knowledge that they so desperately needed. School ran on in this fashion until the Civil War when the men went to war and the academy was closed. During the war, the Northern General Seigel came through this part of the Valley with his troops and burned the school buildings to the ground.

IN 1907, the founder of the present Augusta Military Academy, Prof. Charles S. Roller, retired on account of ill health and his two sons, Colonel Thomas J. Roller and Major Charles S. Roller, Jr. assumed active control. Under their able management, the school grew to its present size and secured the nation-wide acclaim that it has.

A partnership that had existed for half a century was unfortunately terminated on March 10, 1946, when Col T. J. Roller died in Coral Gables, Florida. Major Roller then assumed control of the school. In 1946 also, Major Roller was promoted to Colonel in the Virginia State Guard.

Since then, we have seen the school and all that typifies Augusta, advance under his magic wand to become one of the leading preparatory schools of this nation. The words "the only military school in the United States under private ownership" is more than apparent to the "new" cadet and even more to the old cadet as the fleeting years of his stay pass away. The personal touch that goes with Col. Roller and Augusta is the outstanding characteristic that differentiates this from other schools.

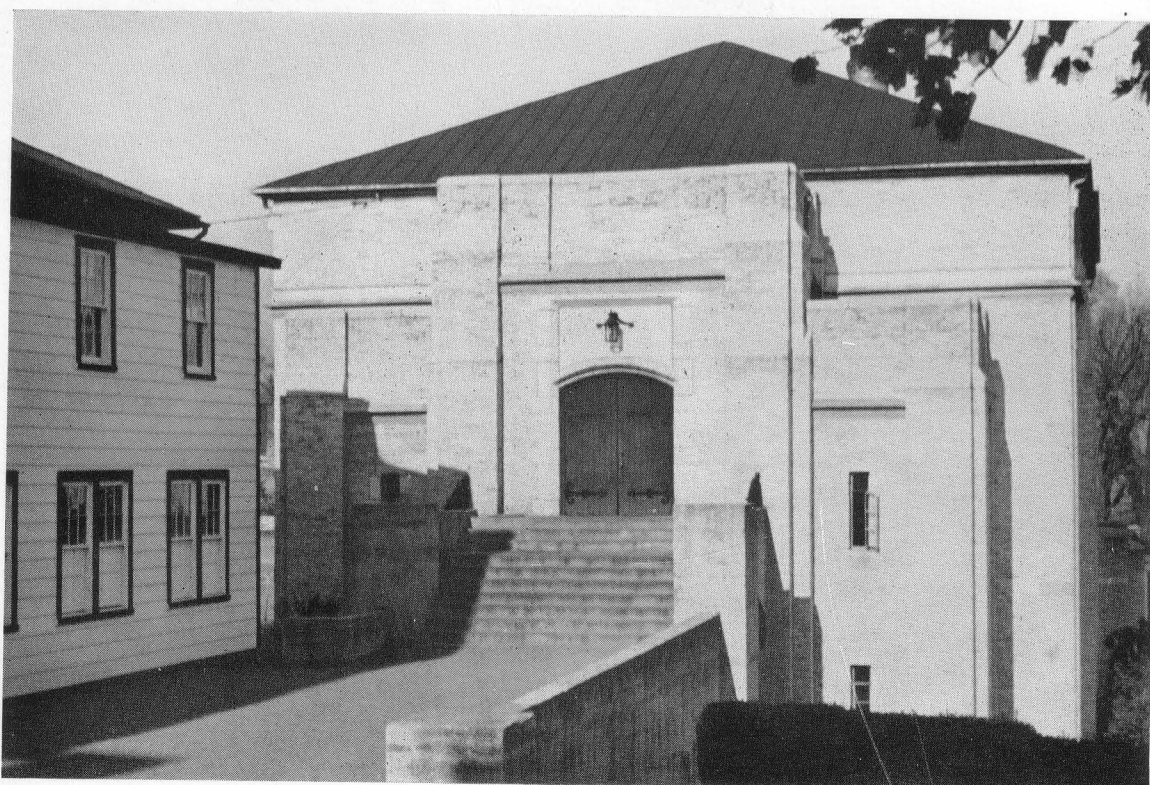

We respect him as a master instructor; we revere him for his interest in us; we love him for all those many kind little things that endear him to all; and lastly we worship him as the "Big Boy".

May his span of life last until he has completed a century of living for "his boys".

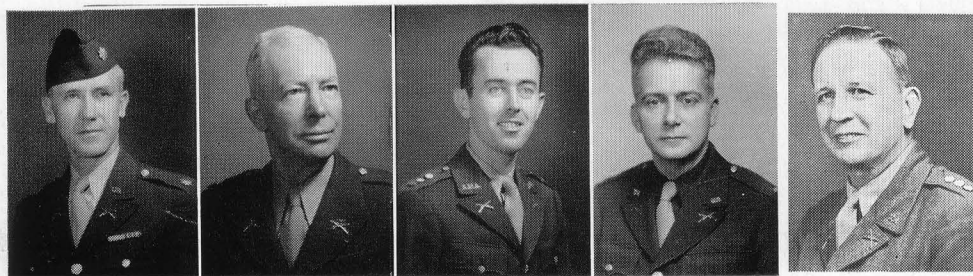

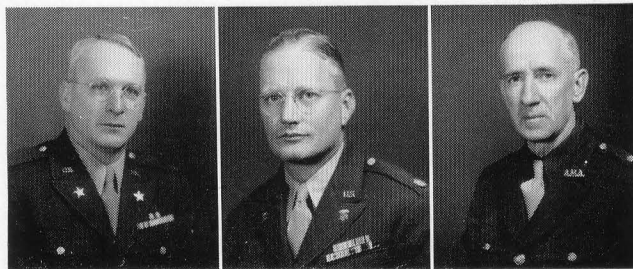

ACADEMIC BUILDINGS

ACADEMIC BOARD

Definitely the most important faculty unit at Augusta, the Academic Board consists of but eight faculty members. These gentlemen give much of their free time after school to have meetings to determine academic needs to satisfy the graduation requirements of each and every cadet. We also put much faith and dependence in these men to help us enter college. All the graduation requirements and academic functions are governed by the Academic Board, and to these gentlemen much credit is due for the high academic standards of Augusta.

The Chairman of the Board is Lt. Colonel H. D. Deane; the Vice-Chairman Major J. C. McCue, Jr.; the Secretary, Major P. V. Hoover; the members in addition are Major H. B. McCrum; Colonel W. L. Gardner; Major F. M. Sizer, Captain J. D. Kramer, and Captain Robert S. Hart.

WILLIAM G. ANDERSON, JR.

BEN L. ANGLE, JR.

ROBERT M. AYERS

ARTHUR C. JENVEY

WILLIAM G. ANDERSON, JR.

Here we have a cadet who will be hard to excel wherever one might go. Buck was a mainstay on the varsity football team, a powerful and agile grappler, and an ace on the baseball diamond. Beyond athletics, he has shown up as an excellent student, outstanding officer, member of the Roller Rifles, and representative of his class on the honor committee. Buck will do good wherever he may go. So long, swell fellow.

ROBERT M. AYERS

Bob is one of those quiet individuals who go their way trying to make life better for his fellow cadet. Studiously inclined he spends his time getting the most of his educational opportunities offered by AMA—Honor Roll—one of top NCO's—neat—friendly to all—eager to advance himself in every possible way—all of which are qualities necessary for a wonderful future.

BEN L. ANGLE, JR.

Look for an all-round cadet and the name of Ben Angle is bound to come up as he has all the characteristics—good looking, considerate, every bit a man and a gentleman; a A-plus student; a football prospect that was never used; stellar performance in basketball; one of the mainstays on the lacrosse team; affable, quiet, impressive, dependable and excellent officership.

ARTHUR C. JENVEY

Art began slowly last year and has gradually accelerated himself into becoming one of the best cadets in the corps—outstanding tackle on the Tiger football eleven—best new cadet on the saber fencing team—good defense man on the lacrosse team—good student and tops if he wishes to be—good man on guard—serious in all of his activities—well-liked—loyal friend.

JAMES P. BOWMAN

He is one of our quiet boys who goes around doing things for others and A.M.A. while many just talk about doing their bit. Jim is one of the stalwarts of Augusta's band for his ability has been instrumental in keeping that organization on top. As an N.C.O. he has few equals and his academic work has been outstanding. Good luck old fellow.

BENITO CHANG

Benito has been with us four years, in which time he has proven himself a good officer with the position of assistant adj., excellent scholar, and very well liked cadet. Benito is a member of the Roller Rifles, an honor coming to only outstanding cadets. In the future, we are sure that Chang will excel in all that he endeavors just as he has here with us. It is sad indeed to part with a friend of Benito's caliber.

GEORGE M. CHANDLER

"The Laundry Room will be open ten minutes more" is the familiar call which brings George to our minds. A more conscientious fellow cadet would be hard to find; considerate of everyone; studiously inclined; star member of our famous band; a good officer; a hard worker; a good scholar and lastly a loyal friend to his many acquaintances.

ANDREW N. CHRISTOPOULO

"Andy" is by a wide margin the biggest cadet in the corps; biggness is his main asset; an excellent officer in the medical department of the infirmary; jovial, witty, scholastic excellence whenever he wishes; considerate of his fellow being; always ready with a humorous remark when the tension becomes too great; possessed of such a good nature that he has yet to get angry at any one or anything.

JOHN M. COLE, JR.

THOMAS H. CLEMENTS

Tommy has spent all of his secondary education with us and in that time he has made himself prominent by his many callings; Roller Rifles, Captain of H.Q. Co. in which he was a private and in four years rose to the highest office in a company that has the hardest task to do—President of the Cotillion Club, he has been responsible for our many and much-talked about dances of this year—an athlete of great promise and action as his work on the tennis team will substantiate—add this to his pleasing personality.

ARTHUR N. COHEN

Art will probably go down in the annals of Augusta as one of the best First captains; admired by the faculty and respected by the cadets; he has sacrificed popularity to make this corps one of the best; as an officer he has many equals; as a student he holds his own against all; a good saber man on the fencing team; Roller Rifles; Beta Club; Honor Roll; Cotillion Club; Lacrosse; and wrestling.

EDWIN F. CLICK

When Ed graduates this year he will have ended four years stay at this school with one of the best records ever to be had by a student at A.M. A.: Roller Rifles membership; Honor Roll student par excellence; outstanding on the foil fencing team; one of the best N.C.O. in the battalion; consistent in every detail assigned him; loyal son of Augusta. Long remembered will be his outstanding work in decorating for all of our dances—especially the Final Ball.

JOHN M. COLE, JR.

Johnny surprised all of us the first year by being elected President of the Y.M.C.A. Conference at Natural Bridge and justly so far he possesses all the qualities to be most successful in life; as an officer he could have been the best in the corps; as a student he is potentially unbeatable; pleasing in personality; neat, affable, mature, athletically unexplored—his sole venture being an outstanding one in lacrosse where he was instrumental in bringing that team to the fore.

JOHN R. CROCKETT, JR.

Jock is one of those natural athletes with quite a reputation for good work in scholastic lines which match those of his athletic—Honor Roll—Roller Rifles—one of the original Tiger football players—excellent at whatever sport he may turn his talents—eager to succeed and with the ability to do it.

VERNON H. CROCKETT

Vernor is one of the best natured and most conscientious cadets we recall; athletically endowed but as yet unexplored as his sole direct venture into sports has been baseball where he distinguished himself very well; tops in scholastics as he appeared regularly on the Honor Roll; one of the best N.C.O. officers; sincere in his every endeavor.

GEORGE W. DETWILER

This cadet has, in his one year, shown to us all, an excellent student, a hard charging guard on the varsity football team, and a top notch all around fellow. Det will certainly do well in anything he undertakes, for his outstanding character and good fellowship are with him all the way. Good luck in college, Det.

JOHN P. DUFFEY, JR.

A hard worker and tackler on the Tiger eleven; one of the best in epee in fencing; one of the best Sgts. of the guard; quiet and reserved and every bit a true Southern gentleman; tops in scholastics.

GARY B. EVANS

Gary is one of those capable cadets who put all of his effort making this school the best military unit in the country—excellent student with few equals—a top N.C.O.—as the Inquiring Reporter of the Bayonet Staff he added much honor to this publication for its column became one of the most popular. An A-1 tennis player.

JAMES M. FREEMAN

Jimmy has been with us three years and during that stay he has been instrumental in bringing the band to the high position it now holds—an excellent officer in a worthy organization—pleasing personality—quiet but effective wherever he may go—a good and serious student with good intentions well fulfilled—keep your eye on this ambitious cadet.

EDWIN M. ELLMAN

Small in stature but great in performance as his accomplishments on the varsity basketball, Tiger baseball and Honor Roll indicate. One of the best sergeants of the guard of any detail—studious interested in making himself the best officer possible and doing his bit for Augusta in a manly manner. One of the most popular cadets in the corps and a loyal friend.

E. LAWRENCE FINKLEHOFF

He has displayed an ability in academics not to be excelled. In the past two years he has made many friends and has risen in all ways. He is conscientious, serious, but still always ready to enjoy a good joke. We are sure that what you have gotten here at A.M.A. will stick with you as you go on to make a success in the future.

Co., an honor which is very hard to achieve in so short time. Good luck, Billie.

EDMUND C. GLOVER, III

One of the finest cadets in the graduating class and the entire cadet corps; tall, handsome, courteous, pleasing personality, earnest, conscientious, Roller Rifles membership, star on the epee team in fencing; probably the best N.C.O. in the corps.

WILLIAM P. GRACE, III

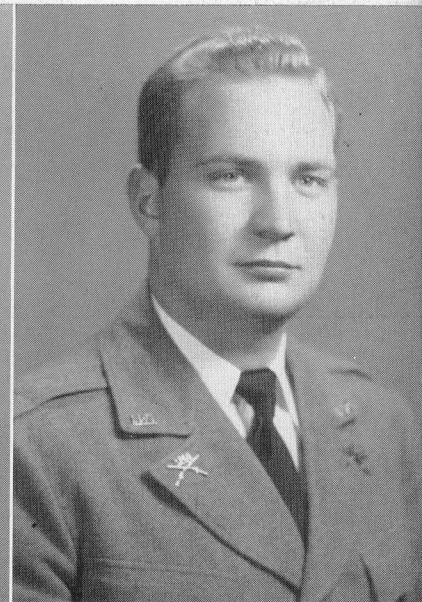

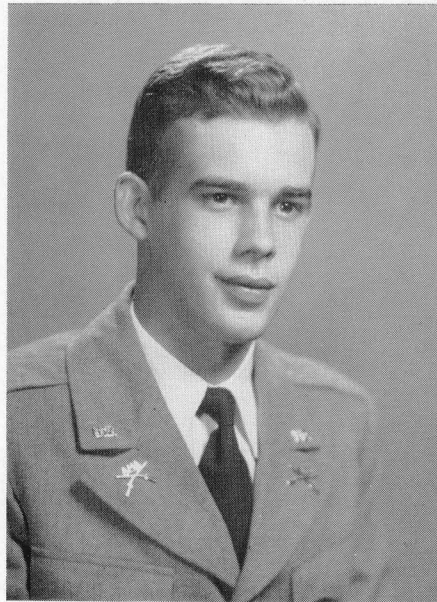

Bill is one of those small parcels who confined all of his athletic talent to playing Tiger football, sabering on the fencing team and an attack man on the lacrosse team; add to this Roller Rifles—Honor Roll—Beta Club—RECALL and Bayonet work—sincere—loyal—one of the best friends a fellow cadet can have—West Point calls him to carry on the family name which he will do with honor.

ROBERT S. HANTSCH

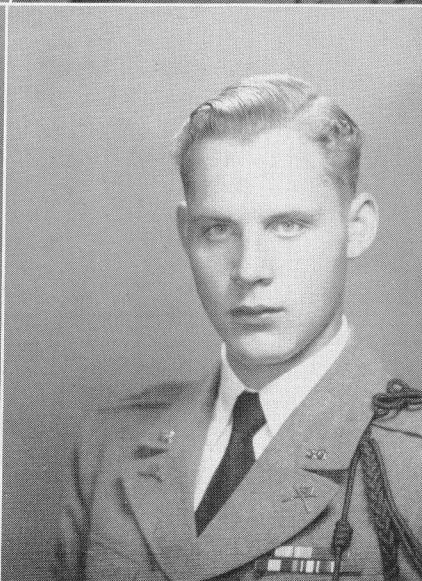

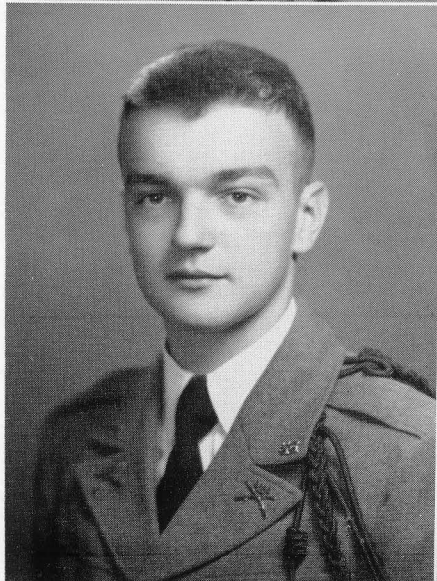

Bob has been with us five years and has risen in stature in every sense of the word—from a private to the highest office in "A" Co., he has been an excellent officer—Roller Rifles—Honor Roll—RECALL Staff and Bayonet Staff where he was one of the mainstays—a swimmer of no mean repute and probably the best tennis player in the corps leading his teammates to victory many a time a true, loyal and sincere son of Augusta.

It is hard to imagine that the little boy who came to A.M.A. four years has grown to such stature in every phase of cadets life at Augusta as has Billy Hill; from the rank of private to the captain of one of the best companies in the battalion; from a mere substitute on various athletic teams to Captaincy of the Rifle team, tops on the Tiger eleven; one of the best in lacrosse; add to this Honor Roll, Beta Club, Honor Committee, space does not permit all the honors earned by this well liked cadet.

FRANK P. HUNTER, JR.

Coming from a long line of distinguished Southern gentlemen, Frank has more than upheld the family name and tradition in a most worthy manner; stately, manly, handsome, an athlete if he wished to be; Roller Rifles membership; interested in making Augusta the best school in the country by doing his best in every phase of cadet life.

CLARENCE M. HRISIS

Mike has done more for the corps than probably any other cadet but in a way that few realize or know—many books in the library are there as a result of his kindness—he has gone out of his way to help his fellow cadet—his work as an officer has been the source of great joy to his many—many friends in the faculty and cadet corps—one of the best examples of "True School Spirit" the school has ever known.

LATELLE McK. LAFOLLETTE, III

One of the best all-around cadets in this year's graduating class—a good student and quite an athlete until forced to stop temporarily—an excellent swimmer and baseball player—one of the best N.C.O.'s in the corps—handsome in a manly sort of way—personality plus—hard and serious worker all for the good of his alma mater. The legal profession will probably get an excellent lawyer should he care to follow this vocation.

PHIPPS W. LUNDY

Phipps is one of our outstanding day boys who took part in every cadet activity—a good student—quiet—pleasant—interested in sports although his weight is not sufficient to make the varsity he still goes out for the minor team and quite a record he has made for himself.

JAMES H. LUPTON, JR.

When Jim graduates this June he will leave behind him four years filled with his works of accomplishments—one of the best officers in the battalion—Beta Club—Honor Roll—Y.M.C.A. Cabinet—a good student and a loyal friend.

CHARLES FREDERIC MATHER-SMITH, II

Under the direction of Freddie, the band has become the outstanding organization of the corps for his personal touch has done wonders to bring his company to fore where it rightly belongs—an officer with much vigor and promise—a good student—as manager of the football team he added his bit as a socialite he has few equals—one of the best liked cadets—always with a smile and witty reply good enough to make any person feeling downhearted to perk up and see the sunlight still shines.

If any cadet has put his all in junior athletics at this school, Gary is one who takes tops honors for all during his four years stay he has consistently participated in Peep and Tiger football, basketball and baseball teams and his performance has been responsible for the success these teams have attained. Witty, attractive personality, well founded academically, conscientious in all of his work, excellent officer, what else do you wish?

Another rare combination of brains and brawn but in addition marked social leanings—one of the original Tiger football players—star performer on the varsity basketball team—Tiger baseball, Honor Roll, top-notch officer, quite a ladies man of great reputation, excellent dancer, serious, industrious, and willing to do his best to fulfill the highest of ideals, a true friend and one of the most popular cadets in the corps.

J. MILTON MILLER, JR.

Milt thought so much of his Alma mater that after receiving a high school certificate he returned to be eligible for an A.M.A. Diploma—thru his interest in his future he added further laurels to Augusta by starring on the Peep, Tiger, Wrestling, and Lacrosse teams—Roller Rifles—Honor Roll—One of the best first lieutenants in the battalion—in short a regular fellow.

HOYLE HEYWARD MILLER, JR.

Hoyle is a native North Carolinian who is proud of this fact and keeps on trying to show us that the best people come from his state. A swell fellow and quite popular, an excellent N.C.O.—full of school spirit—good football, basketball, and baseball player—ladies man deluxe, attractive personality—has what it takes to succeed.

C. KENNETH MORAN, JR.

Kennie came to Augusta for a post graduate course and took part in almost every activity in the school—Tiger football—best new cadet in H. Q. Co.—one of the most conscientious members of the Y.M.C.A. Cabinet—Swimming and Lacrosse—Honor Roll—willing to do his best at all times to make A.M.A. tops in all.

WILLIAM L. McCARTHY, JR.

One of our veterans who had his education interrupted by World War II; realizing that he must finish all jobs he started, Mac returned to Augusta to earn his diploma and in a manner that has brought the acclaim and respect of the entire school to this earnest and conscientious cadet. By his record at Augusta the RECALL predicts for him a successful future.

JAMES McDOWELL, JR.

RICHARD C. NOLAN

Dick was a member of our varsity football eleven and was main instrument in helping the team make the excellent record it did this season; during the winter he played heads-up basketball and furthered his athletic success by his outstanding work on the diamond in the spring; academically interested as evidenced by his consistency in the higher brackets of accomplishments.

WILLIAM D. PAXTON, JR.

Probably the most outstanding cadet in the Cadet Corps as he has taken almost every possible honor—President of the Student Body, Chairman of the Final Ball, Captain Co. "D", Tiger Football, Captain Fencing Team, Lacrosse, Baseball, Honor Roll, Roller Rifles—in fact space does not permit adequate mention of a cadet who has done so much for his school without any thought of personal gain—whatever school beckons to him he will honor it as he has done Augusta.

ALLAN J. PEARSON

Although he hails from Cuba, he speaks English as well as, or better than most of us. He is a fine student, having been on the Honor Roll consistently for his four years at Augusta. A capable officer and a fine musician, he has played a predominant part in making the Band what it is. Prominent socially, as well as athletically, we rate Al as one of Augusta's finest. This spring he worked himself up to the Finals in the Hearst Oratorical Contest held annually in Baltimore.

FEDERICO R. POEY

A fine example of the Spanish boys of Augusta. Though usually quiet, he yet is witty and humorous, and is a great favorite of everyone. Though prone to let his abilities rest, he has the capabilities of a splendid student, and should do well in any of his undertakings of later life and career. Our respect and best wishes go with an excellent advertisement for Cuba.

ROBERTO F. POEY

Fico, a best new-cadet in his company last year, has well maintained his excellent reputation which he has most assuredly earned. An excellent student, with an exceptional flair for mathematics, Fico has also been outstanding athletically. For two years he has been one of the sparkplugs of the swimming team. All our best wishes for success go with Fico.

P. THOMAS PRICE

In his two years at Augusta, Tom has made many close friends for himself. Though quiet and easy-going, he possesses an intelligence far above average, and has an easily found trace of wit. Certain to be a success if he uses his ability. Augusta loses a good boy when Tom leaves.

JOHN A. RUSSELL

One of the two top officers in the cadet corps, Roller Rifle membership, stellar guard on the championship Tiger elevens for two years, top man on foil and epee fencing teams, scholarship deluxe, personality extraordinary, one of the earnest members of the all-time student body officers, quiet but very effective wherever he is seen, keen sense of humor, loyal beyond any doubt, sincere, a true gentleman in every degree and only the highest.

WALTER C. SCHIMMEL

One of the finest examples of Spanish-speaking students ever to be graduated from this academy as his work these past three years will show. Actively interested in getting the best college education possible in the United States he intends to return to his native land to help develop the unexploited resources which are waiting for such talents as he possesses.

MAC THOMAS SAUNDERS

When Mac receives his diploma he will have realized one of his two aims in his life. The other is to continue his studies and enter into the business world where a wonderful future awaits him in Suffolk. A good student, sincere in all of his endeavors an athlete potentially but apparent in his single effort to manage the swimming team. A good N.C.O. whenever and wherever he wishes to be. Friendly and ambitious.

G. THEODORE MEYER

Small in stature, large in accomplishments, one of the best new cadets, Honor Roll, wrestling, best end on Peep Football team, an excellent student loyal to the highest ideals of Augusta, sincere in all of endeavors, worthy of highest possible trust.

FRED C. SHAPPEE, JR.

In his quiet and unassuming way, Fred has done as much as any cadet could do or ever expect to do for his school—no task is too much to ask him to do—always willing and with a cheerful smile—one of the best cadet O.C.'s as well as being one of the best commissioned officers—witty, likeable, full of ambition, industrious, school spirit without equal, good natured—as good a friend as one could ever ask for.

JOHN ROBERT SMYTON

Another rare combination of brawn and brains as evidenced by his consistent appearance on the monthly honor roll while still actively engaged in varsity sports such as football, basketball and baseball. Sincerely a hard worker in H.Q. Co. He has placed his shoulder to the wheel to help keep this organization way up at the front.

J. RONALD SHILLINGLAW

One of the best officers in this outstanding cadet corps, a hard worker at making Augusta the top school it has been, academically well founded, athletically endowed but unused, sincere, loyal, conscientious, interested in everything at Augusta. Socially a top man in every fiesta.

RONALD L. SOLLOD

Ronnie is a four year boy who is climaxing his last year with distinctive honors—assistant manager of varsity football—manager of varsity basketball and lacrosse—one of the best platoon sergeants in the corps—pleasing personality and one of the best liked cadets in school—willing, studious, energetic, efficient, hard working, loyal to the best of ideals.

JOHN DAVID STANLEY

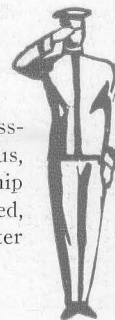

Following the footsteps of his brother who preceded him at this school eight years ago, he has striven sincerely to uphold the highest of ideals set before him and has succeeded by maintaining the family's name scholastically as well as that as an officer of high caliber. His work on the Bayonet and RECALL last year did much to forward these progressive publications. Socially inclined often to put his pleasures before his ideals but a better friend a cadet never had as he always is ready to do his part.

THOMAS ERNEST STEELE

One of our G.I.'s who left his studies at Augusta to take up the cause of making our way of life more secure for you and me and who has now returned to finish the task set aside five years ago. In many ways he has endeared himself to the cadet corps by his many ways of making this school a better academy. Excellent officer, top student, sincerely interested in making his future a success. Electronics attracts him naturally thru his close association with this field during his connection with A.U.S.A.

JAMES E. STARNES

Son of a distinguished Maryland family, possessed with an attractive personality, intelligence plus, highly developed sense of true humor, officership outstanding, athletically endowed but undeveloped, musically excellent plus being a loyal supporter of the RECALL and Bayonet.

JAMES A. WESTON, JR.

Probably one of the students to accomplish most during his first year stay at Augusta as evidenced by his remarkable progress in his scholastics. Consistent in military work, a sincere friend to those who share his confidence—a gentleman in every sense of the word. Quietly enthused in every thing connected with his alma mater.

Possessing that rare combination of brains and brawn as exhibited by his outstanding performance on the varsity football eleven, varsity basketball and varsity baseball teams. A student of great accomplishment as well as one of the best new cadets in H.Q. Co. Conscientious, courteous, sincere, zealous, eager to make his company the best in the cadet corps.

RICHARD F. YOUNG

Dick has amassed many honors in his stay at Augusta—Honor Roll, Junior and Tiger football, fencing, captaincy of the Lacrosse team, White Page, rising from the lowly rank of private to that of Captain of "B" Co. climaxed by one of the cadets' most cherished possession—Captaincy of the crack Roller Rifles. Add to all those honors congeniality, humor, and all the traits of a true gentleman.

RICHARD W. WILDE

One of the mainstays of the championship band of Augusta having been a member of this organization for his four years stay. Honor Roll, one of his company's top N.C.O., socially inclined which often interfered with his scholastic achievement which is potentially of the highest caliber. Quiet and reserved, consistent in his many endeavors, qualities needed to be successful in life.

WILLIAM WILLOUGHBY

Two years alone have enshrined this native Alabamian as the outstanding student not only of this graduating class but propably of all time. Peep football and fencing are dear to his heart as are his achievements as editor of the RECALL. Loyalty and devotion to the highest of ideals—sincere, always willing to help whoever may seek his aid. Chemistry Medal winner. His plans are to continue his academics at M.I.T. where he hopes to enter the engineering field.

RICHARD D. GIBBS

Coming to us from Thomas Jefferson High, Dick has, in his one year here at AMA, made a surprising number of friends. In addition to being an excellent student, he is friendly and has a great deal of wit. He is quite the social hound, as his amount of mail will testify. We wish success to a boy who is bound to succeed.

C. RODGERS HUFF

Rogers, a four year man, and one of our best CW's has done excellently at AMA, rating First Lieutenant of "HQ" Company his senior year. He has plenty of company spirit, and is one of the stars of the "HQ" Co. intramural teams. Rogers is certainly good-humored and laughs readily, and we feel that he will go places when this smiling boy hits life's highways.

JOHN E. BARRETT

John has steadily improved during his stay at Augusta, and in this, his senior year, he can be classified as a good student. He is witty, good-humored, and has many friends. A member of the "tower gang", Jack and his various little schemes and jokes have been quite a source of pleasure to everyone at Augusta. Good luck to a swell guy.

CASWELL W. MOORING

Cass, who hails from Maryland, has done excellently in his four years at AMA, advancing to the rank of 1st. Sgt. on the Battalion Staff. Cass has a great number of friends who seem to appreciate his own brand of sarcastic humor and dry wit. Cass has much ability, though he is sometimes prone not to use it. A leader in extracurricular activities, Cass has starred on the Rifle Team for three years.

Tactical Department

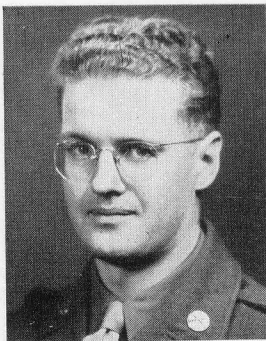

*From the second oldest

Augusta may be well proud of her tactical department as there has never been one group of individuals assigned here that have done more for the cadets and for the school than this group. They have not only been the military "minded" gentlemen who preside over us at drill, but have been closely connected with many other phases of cadet life.

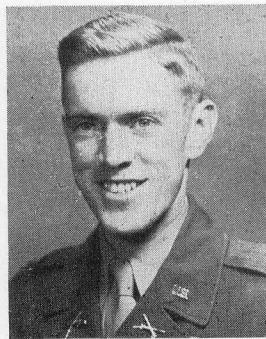

Heading this department as the Professor of Military Science and Tactics, is Major John A. McWatters, Infantry and one would have to look long and diligently to find a more admirable gentleman than he. He participates in many events which occur here at the school and is directly responsible for the military training program this year which has been so comprehensive.

The adjutant of the Military Department is Captain Edwin M. Aldrich, a graduate of the United States Military Academy and of the Augusta Military Academy. He helped develop the corps into the great unit drill team that it was.

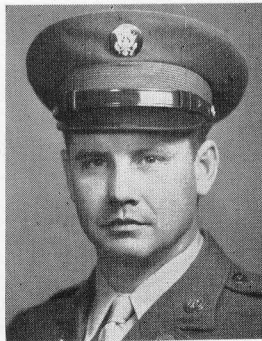

Comprising the remainder of the military department staff are Master Sergeant Eli M. Dews, Master Sergeant Richard X. Medcalf and Corporal Paul H. Bratton. These men have rendered themselves invaluable with their many services and actions.

COMPANY CAPTAINS

ARTHUR N. COHEN
 Battalion Commander

Art has made an excellent name and record for himself during his four years at Augusta, attaining the distinction of being first captain of the battalion in his senior year. One of the best academically, he has been on the honor roll consistently since he has been here. Though prominent socially and athletically, he is especially outstanding militarily, being a two-year Roller Rifles man, and having received the award for military excellence. As an all-around cadet, he will have few equals, and we know that he will display the same fortitude and drive in later life that he has given the AMA Corps of 1950.

"A" COMPANY

Climaxing his four years at Augusta as Captain of "A" Company, Bob has typified the best characteristics of an officer. Though good-natured and friendly, Bob has made "A" what it is through discipline and his dynamic pep talks which will be remembered by all the members of an excellent organization.

"B" COMPANY

Dick, a three-year Roller Rifles man, has instilled much of his military ability and peppy drive into "B" Company this year, as could be easily seen by the precision and snap of its drilling, and also by its many wins of Sunday parades. Dick has set a fine example for the future officers of the corps, and we feel sure that he will also be a leader in college as in later life.

"C" COMPANY

"C" Company this year is most assuredly rated one of the best due to the untiring efforts of its Captain, Billy Hill. Billy, who has been at Augusta for four years, was both a best-cadet, and a best NCO, as well as this year being a company captain of exceptional merit. "C" has a great deal of company spirit, and has been an easy winner of parades as well as intramural activities.

"D" COMPANY

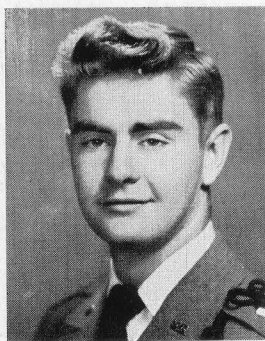

Probably the Cadet Captain with one of the hardest jobs is Bill Paxton, Captain of Company "D". "D" has all the small boys of the corps, and naturally, it is an additional job to keep all the juniors in line in regard to the military formations and functions. Bill has been one of the finest Cadet Captains to ever attend Augusta. Just about the most popular boy in school, Bill has done a wonderful job with "D" Company this year.

"HQ" COMPANY

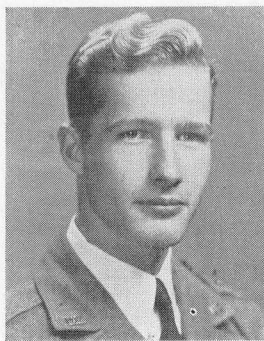

Tommy, though a captain last year, returned to Augusta to do an even better job of commanding the Headquarters Company, definitely one of the best companies in the battalion. Along with the job of commanding a full-fledged company, there is an additional job for Tommy: that of managing the Cadet Waiters, and this he has done excellently, leading "HQ" Company to the top in all activities military and athletic. Tommy is a friend to all, and is very popular with everyone connected with AMA. When Tommy goes, Augusta loses one of the best.

BAND

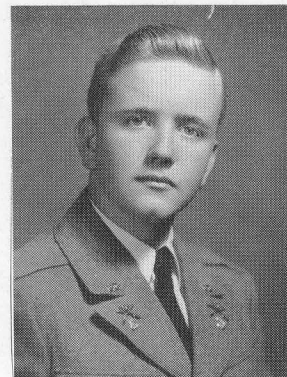

This year's Band has been a musical organization of exceptional merit, in fact one of the best bands that Augusta has had for quite a few years. In competitions held at various places during the year, the AMA Band has participated and has made an excellent showing for the school. In addition, the Band has provided excellent music for the military functions of the school. Fred is a drummer of indisputable ability, and through his musical ability and bandsmanship, he has led this year's Band to the top. Fred is well liked, and it will be hard for Augusta to find a replacement for him.

VARSDITY FOOTBALL 1949

AUGUSTA—18 COVINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—6

Starting off the season, Augusta came from behind to defeat a strong, hard-fighting Covington football machine in a bruising uphill battle 18-7. Covington took an early 7-0 lead when they scored on the ground. At half time, the score was 7-6, Matthes having plowed across for a T. D. In the third period, the Augusta Blue-and-White really began to roll. Pud Constantino, the spectacular halfback, ran 60 yards to score and then soon after, crossed into pay-dirt again. There was very little passing in the contest and the game ended Augusta 18, Covington, 7.

AUGUSTA—20 HIGH POINT COLLEGE "B" TEAM—8

Constantino scored on a 69 yard punt return on the first play of the game to spark Augusta Military Academy to a 20-8 victory over the "B" Team of High Point (N. C.) College in the first home game for A. M. A. of the season. Shortly after this wonderful play, High Points Grissom tossed a short pass to Rusher for a score and at half-time, AMA was leading on the strength of Frank Armstrong's kick from placement. The Blue-and-White stormed back in the second half for two more tallies and Armstrong booted one of the conversions through the uprights. Late in the game, Nolan was smothered back of the goal line where he fumbled and the ball rolled out of the end zone for a safety.

AUGUSTA—13 V. M. I.—6

Again sparked by the sensational running of Pud Constantino, AMA racked up its third straight gridiron victory by defeating the VMI Frosh in a well earned victory 13-6. The opening kickoff was returned by Constantino for 88 yards to score. In the second period, Chumbley and Vaughan of VMI teamed up and pushed down field to tallie. Late in the third quarter, Constantino pulled in a VMI pass on his own 40 and ran 60 yards to pay dirt. Thus the game ended—Augusta, 13; V. M. I. 6.

AUGUSTA—29 GREENBRIER—9

The next week, the powerful AMA gridiron giants traveled to Lynchburg with the corps of cadets where they met and defeated Greenbrier Military School in a spectacular night contest 29-9. Time and again Augusta pulled GMS far off sides and many penalties were marked off because of this. In the first quarter Herm Matthes plunged across from the eleven to score, but Armstrong's kick was blocked. In the second, Schabdach recovered a GMS fumble and the next play, Constantino went all the way and Armstrong's kick was good. Lynn Pugh of Greenbrier was trapped behind the goal and smeared to set up a safety for AMA. Later, Willard passed to Ford in the end zone for another TD. Kozma then went over from the 14 to make the score 29-7. A backfield fumble by AMA was fallen on by Dick Nolan to make the final score 29-9.

AUGUSTA—7 FORK UNION—26

For the first time in three seasons of excellent foot-balling, Augusta suffered a defeat from a prep school, Fork Union Academy, when they were walloped at FUMA 26-7. Constantino took the opening kick-off but stepped out of bounds on the eight yard line. After holding AMA for four downs, FUMA pushed down the field to score. Augusta then took over the ball and pushed to the FUMA 7 where they met a stone-wall. In the second half, AMA kicked off and Fork Union took the ball for 71 yards to score. Then Kozma grabbed a punt and crashed his way to the 25. Matthes went across to score. Later, Pecuch of FUMA ran 70 yards for a score and thus the game ended.

AUGUSTA—59 HAMPDEN-SYDNEY "B" TEAM—0

Marching 53 yards to pay-dirt in three plays following the opening of the game and scoring every time that it handled the ball thereafter, a rebounding Augusta Military Academy eleven completely outclassed the B team of Hampden-Sydney College, 59-0, in the Clay Bowl at Fort Defiance. Pud Constantino led the TD parade with four scores of 41, 33, 42 and 43 yards. Kozma crossed over twice on jaunts of 12 and 39 yards and had another called back when he went out of bounds. Ford also went over twice on a pass from Willard and a pass from Sparks. Armstrong booted five extra points from placement.

AUGUSTA—26 ELON COLLEGE "B" TEAM—7

With Constantino furnishing two touchdowns runs and Kozma adding the necessary yardage to set up all the scores, Augusta Military Academy rolled over the Elon College "B" Team to the tune of 26-7. Early in the game, Constantino took a toss-out from Willard and scored. The conversion by Armstrong was good. Elon pulled the old "Statue of Liberty" play and pushed down the field only to have the ball taken over by AMA and Constantino ran 53 yards to score.

AUGUSTA—20 WEST VIRGINIA FROSH—7

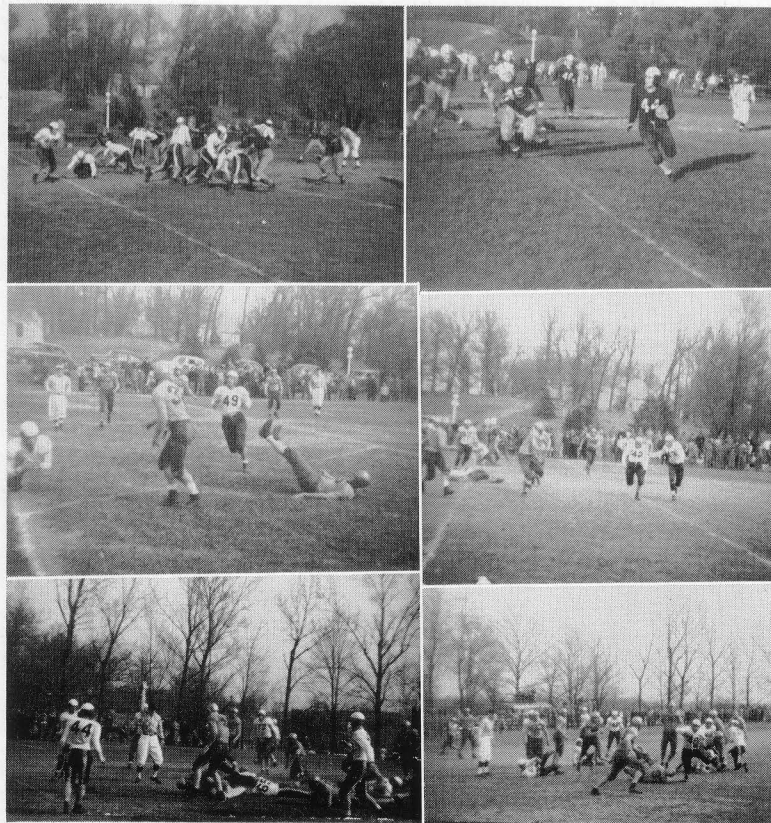

With the game only two minutes old, Pud Constantino the sensational Pennsylvania flier, went eight yards to score for Augusta as they met the heavy West Virginia University Frosh at Fort Defiance. In the late minutes of the game, the Baby Mountaineers pulled a razzle-dazzle and racked up a tally for themselves. Schabdach went on to score later in the game and the game ended Augusta 21; West Virginia—7.

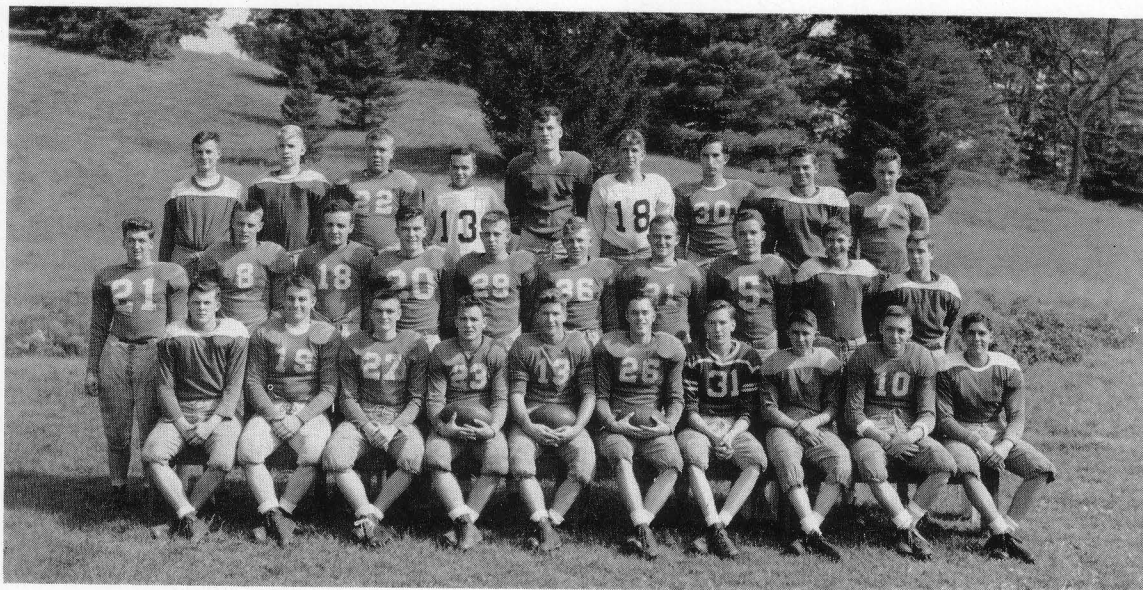

AUGUSTA—6 MANLIUS—6

The next week, Augusta journeyed to Manlius, New York where the heavy and tricky Manlius Prep School was met and tied 6-6. On the second play of the game, Nolan shoved off to score. Armstrong's punt was right of the up-rights and AMA led 6-0. The game see-sawed back and forth and on several occasions, it seemed that nothing could stop the AMA boys, but passes were blocked, etc. and they could not push across again. With only four minutes left to play, Girlock of Manlius plowed across to score and the game ended 6-6.

AUGUSTA—37 MASSANUTTEN—7

On Thanksgiving Day, Pud Constantino, the non-stop express, paced AMA to a convincing 37-7 victory over Massanutten Military Academy. Constantino tallied three touchdowns and did many things that made him pretty obnoxious as far as Massanutten was concerned. Nolan broke around right tackle to score for AMA, and later Secanovick booted to Constantino who zig-zagged 60 yards to score. Later, Sparks tossed to Matthes who made another tallie and then Nolan threw to Constantino for another score. AMA picked up 277 yards to 42 made by Massanutten.

The 1950 season for the AMA Tigers will go down as another fine one for the fighting Junior eleven of the school. By winning four and losing two to high school varsities, they demonstrated that the loyal spirit of the blue and white can defeat any school in its class, and even those out of its class, as their record will substantiate.

In the opening game Fishburne was routed by a convincing score of 26-0. Early in the game by hard tackling AMA recovered a FMS fumble and two plays later Caylor skirted around for forty yards for the tally. Shortly thereafter Caylor intercepted a FMS pass for the second TD. Crockett made the extra point and later in the period went through center for a score. Caylor repeated his work with another score. FMS went to the AMA four yard stripe but lost the ball on downs.

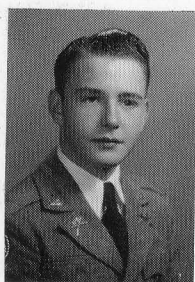

The mountain air and high altitude proved too much for the Tigers in their second game which they lost to Luray Hi Varsity. Time and time again the blue and white stalwarts would bring the crowd to their feet with spectacular runs of thirty and forty yards only to be tackled within scoring distance. Fumbles and sloppy blocking nullified these gains, as Luray took over on downs. In the closing minutes of the game Luray succeeded in slipping a pass receiver by our strong defense for the only score. AMA came to life and took the ball to the LHS five just as the whistle brought the game to an end.

After a lapse of a month, Lee Hi became our next victim. The lack of games was evident as the first half was spent in experimenting against our opponents who carried the ball deep into our territory but without any scoring success. Eventually AMA came to life and the ball was taken to the LHS twelve where Shepherd went on an end-around play for the tally. Late in the final quarter the attack clicked again with Parnell snatching a pass when surrounded by opponents, for the final tally. Twyman made the extra point.

The Peeps duplicated their 1949 record when they again went undefeated from a second starlight season.

In the opening game with the VSDB Jayvees Hodge ran a VSDB punt back to his opponents' twenty, from where Hanger, on the next play, went around end for the first tally. On the kickoff after the first TD, VSDB let the ball roll into their end zone where Malamut jumped on it for another score. The tries for the extra points on both TD's were not good. In the closing minutes of the third period VSDB scored on their famous sleeper play. Then VSDB kicked off to AMA and Hanger carried the ball to the opponents' ten yard stripe, where Bowers on the next play scored standing up. Hanger made the extra point by going through center. In the final quarter VSDB took to the air with successful outbursts of passes which netted them a TD and extra point.

In the return game with VSDB, AMA again exhibited its superiority against its heavier and more experienced opponents. Hanger and Bowers shared honors by going around end and through center respectively for scores. Hodge and Carter made the extra points. VSDB scored their TD on continued line plays late in the final minutes of the game.

In the first game with Miller School the Peeps battled their opponents on even terms. In the second period AMA got going and on a series of starlight first downs took the ball to MS's three where Hanger tallied with Bowers making the extra point. In the opening plays of the third period Hanger passed to Grace on a sleeper play who ran fifty yards for the score. Again AMA took the offensive and Carter scored after a continued drive. In the waning minutes Miller School came to life and scored against the Peeps' reserves.

Another successful court season closed with the traditional game with our ancient rivals, Fishburne. Starting off the season slowly the blue and white quintet picked up speed and showed themselves a strong contender for the title until edged by Hargrave on their court. Victories over Fork Union, Massanutten, FMS, VMI, UVA highlighted the schedule.

Willard outdistanced all of his teammates by topping the 300 mark for another Augusta record. This was made possible by the excellent teamwork of Mathhews, Nolan, Haywood, Wiseman and Wine.

Capt. Chapman deserves a great deal of credit for the wonderful job he did in molding the blue and white team into a well-rounded five team that was as good on the defensive as on the offensive.

The Blue and White natators came close to making a record for all future teams to follow only to come from behind and edge the Roanoke College meremen in their final meet.

Despite the loss of many meets Augusta made itself felt in every contest as all of the events in every meet were closely fought and the outcome of many was in doubt until the final event.

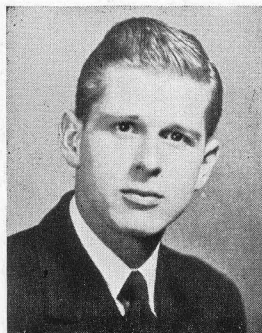

Outstanding among the AMA tankmen were Messick, Poey F., Hantsch, Angle and Crockett J. who consistently were winners in their events.

Others who contributed to the successful season were Ward P., Herrera, Willoughby, and Gardner who time and again outdid their previous performances and came in winners.

Lt. Bales is to be congratulated for his excellent work in shaping green material into first class swimmers.

Meeting some of the finest opposition in the history of this sport at this school, Augusta enjoyed another excellent season. The highlights of the schedule were the victories over North Carolina and John Hopkins and the splendid showing against Navy. Considering the fact that the saber and epee teams were welded together from green material, the results are more than marvelous.

Paxton carried honors in foil followed closely in second place by Rudolph.

In epee Young took first place honors by winning the most of his bouts although Glover pressed him hard for second place. Hill and Russell tied for third place honors.

In saber Jenvey took first place honors followed closely by Parnell with Cohen closely after Parnell.

Some of the meets Augusta lost were climaxed by the fact that AMA made more touches than their opponents thus showing that the blue and white swordsmen lost by close scores while defeating their opponents by wide margins.

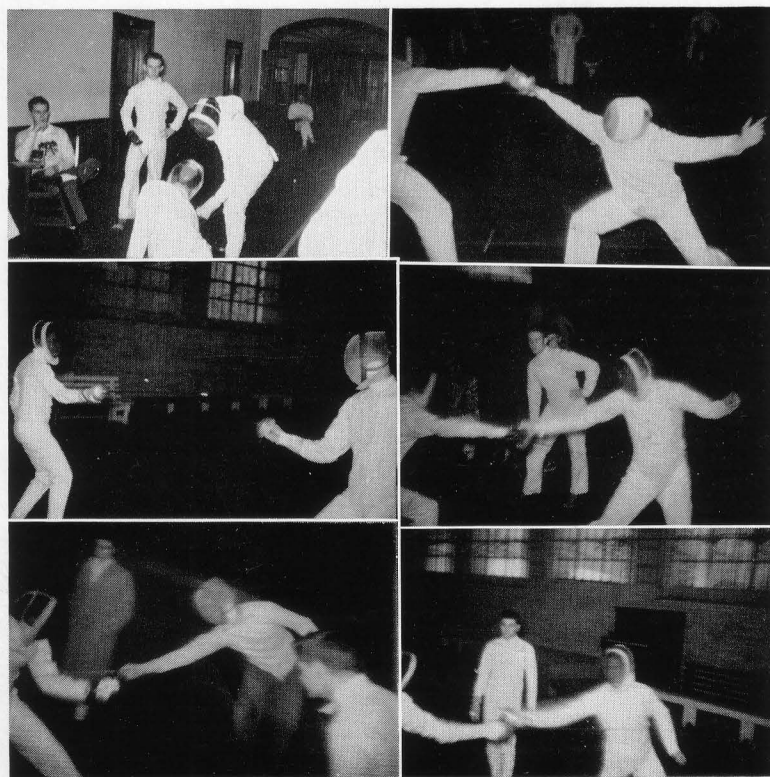

The record made against all college teams will leave some thing for future teams to work for and try to excell.

Under the coaching of Lt. Mike Cooley, the Augusta Grapplers enjoyed another excellent season, AMA broke a jinx when they decisively defeated the Freshman of W&L in two meets. The most spectacular meet of the season came when VSDB, leading 19-0, lost to the blue and white grapplers who came through the last four bouts with a win in each to cop the meet 20-19.

In the state wrestling tournament held at the University of Virginia, Constantino was crowned Champion in the 155 lb. class. In this same competition Brooke and Odenwaelder took third place in the 165 and heavyweight divisions respectively and followed by our 145 lb. entry, Fred Suthard, who came in fourth.

The Augusta Rifle Team made a very commendable showing this year under the expert guidance of Sgt. Eli Dews. The competition met was of the highest caliber and the blue and white team exhibited the expert instruction given them and were a strong contender in every meet.

The highlight of the season was becoming eligible for competition in the National Inter-Collegiate Rifle Contest held yearly among colleges and prep schools throughout the country. This is indeed an honor in as much as Augusta won this event for the past two consecutive years and competed against the finest in the country. The honor held for 1948-49 and 1949-50 will again be the final goal of this year's team.

Cadet Billy Hill, captain of the AMA rifle team is to be congratulated for his fine work in leading his teammates to many a victory this season.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

A. M. A.—45 Y. M. C. A.—31

The A. M. A. Jr. Varsity began the season with a win over the Staunton Y. M. C. A. The victory went to A. M. A. by the score of 45 to 31. The high point man for the game was Poppy Miller Augusta guard with 13 points.

A. M. A.—27 G. M. S.—54

With a win behind them the Augusta J. V.'s journeyed to Greenbriar where they met a highly polished and well rounded Greenbriar club. The Greenbriar poise and style proved too much for A. M. A. and Greenbriar won by a 54 to 27 count. Bill Ault paced the Augusta attack with 11 points.

A. M. A.—72 Y. M. C. A.—27

Once again the Augusta hoopsters tangled with the Y. M. C. A. of Staunton and once again they were victorious. In this game Augusta was on the long end of a 72 to 27 score. The Augusta boys had it all over the Staunton lads, and the games outcome was not long in doubt. There were three high scorers of the J. V. in this game; they were in order Bill Ault with 26 points followed by Frank Pilley 20 and Poppy Miller with 18 points.

A. M. A.—45 W. H. S.—28

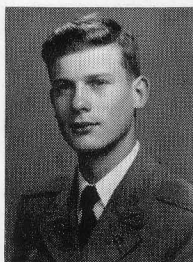

For their fourth game of the season the Blue and White J. V.'s went to Waynesboro to play the Waynesboro J. V.s. Showing no courtesy for their hosts the J. V.'s promptly walked away with the game with a 45 to 28 decision. For the victors the top men were Eddie Ellman and Jack McKenna 11 and 8 respectively.

A. M. A.—18 ST. FRANCIS—26

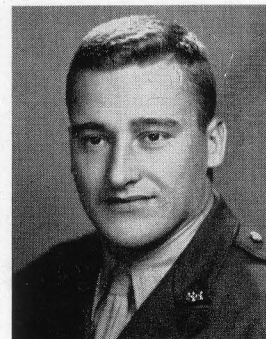

As a preliminary to the Varsity game the A. M. A. J. V.'s encountered the St. Francis Church team from Staunton. The older and more experienced church group proved too much for the J. V.'s and they lost their second game of the season. It was a very low scoring game with both teams losing chance after chance to score. The final score was St. Francis 26, A. M. A. 18. For Augusta, Poppy Miller threw in 8 points to lead the attack.

A. M. A.—64 Y. M. C. A.—24

In the season's last game the Little Hoopster once again played the Staunton Y. As they were expected to the Augusta boys made about the work of putting another win to their column of victories. As before the Augusta lads were on the long end of a 64 to 24 score. Miller led the A. M. A. scoring with 13 points, but was closely followed by Joe Carter with 12 points and Frank Pilley with the same number. This game brought to a close the basketball season of the 1949-1950 period for the J. V. team. The Augusta squad competed in six games of which they won four and dropped only two. The success of the club is attributed to Coach Al McCue whose able coaching and never say give up spirit gave the J. V.'s the hustle and spirit they needed to win.

This year the corps have been led in cheering by several able cadets. They had a lot of great teams this year to cheer for and the corps stood behind them with all their hearts. This has been one of Augusta's greatest years in sports and their winning goes to a great extent to the support of the cadets under the leadership of the cheerleaders. A cheerleader has to decorate the goal posts and do many of the little items that the people don't realize. This year the cheer boys were as follows: Stanley (head cheerleader), Shappee, Hrisis, Chang, Paxton, and Scrivenor who did much for decorating.

The four officers of the student body who were elected this year are the custodians of the highest responsibilities that may be bestowed upon a cadet. It is now, and always has been, their responsibility to represent the corps in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the school. They must take the best interest of the corps to heart, and this is often a difficult and thankless job. As the strongest link between cadets and faculty, much is owed them.

One would have to go far to find a more able president than Bill Paxton. He has proved himself deserving of the honor and capable of handling the task.

In the office of vice-president is the captain of Headquarters Company, Thomas Clement. It has been his job to assist the president in every way possible, and he has done so to the best of his ability.

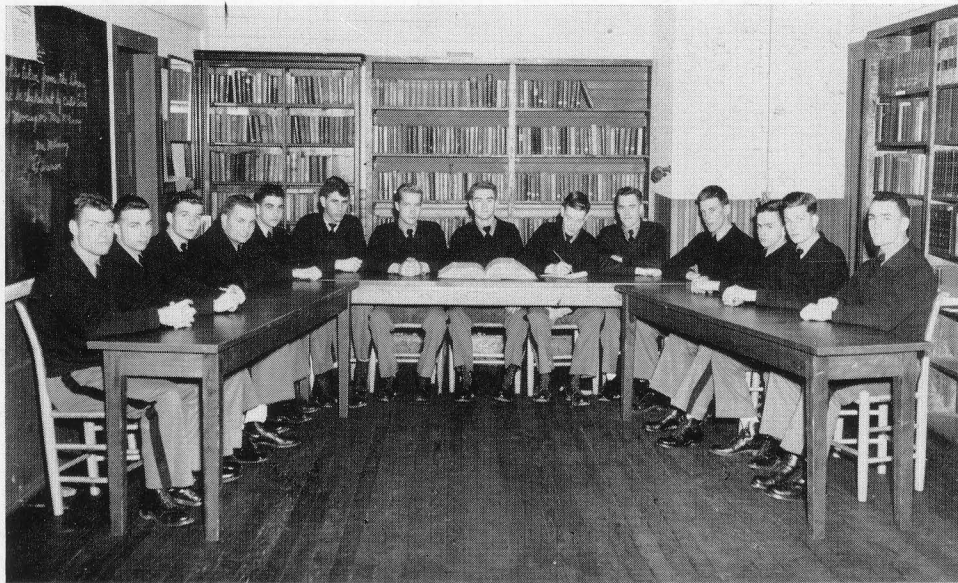

Next in line is Jack Russell as secretary of the student body. His integrity is above question and his good judgement has been valuable time and time again.

Billy Hill holds the position of treasurer. His experience and mature judgement have more often than not settled a point upon which the officers could not agree.

Buddy Harwood as Sergeant of Arms added his bit to make this corps the "tops" in corps.

HONOR COMMITTEE

Well worthy of the confidence of all members of the corps are the members of the Honor Committee. A seat on this committee is second only to an office in the student body as a position of trust. Not only do they meet as a judicial body, but they also help the officers of the student body in the formation of student policy.

The officers of the student body automatically become the officers of the honor committee and those elected to the major offices of this committee were Paxton, Russell, Clements, and Harwood.

Besides these officers, other members were Cadets Hill, W. R., and Bradford, elected from the fourth year class; Cadets Angle, B., Cole J., Pelland, and Miller, J., elected from the third year class; Cadets Guthrie, Matthes, Ault, elected from the second year class; Cadet McKenna elected from the first year class to serve in an advisory capacity.

AD ASTRA PER ASPERA

Colonel Charles S. Roller, Jr.
Founder

In 1925, Colonel C. S. Roller, Jr. founded the only fraternity at Augusta and since its inception it has been an outstanding fraternity from the standpoint of the personnel of its members and the regard with which it has been held by every A.M.A. boy. That fraternity is the Ad Astra Per Aspera.

The motto "Ad Astra Per Aspera" comes from Latin and is translated "To the Stars Through Difficulties". The cadets receiving this award must have lived up to this motto and it implies simply our best. The ten oldest members of the faculty and old Ad Astra members on the post meet shortly before finals and cast their votes for their choices as new Ad Astra members. The ten cadets receiving the highest number of votes are awarded with the coveted pins at the final exercises on graduation day.

Members of the Ad Astra on the faculty are Major J. C. McCue, Capt. E. M. Aldrich and Corporal P. H. Bratton. The only cadet in school this year who has received the Ad Astra is Cadet Bob Bradford.

On Stage—Kennie Moran at Bible Stand, seated around desk are Jim Lupton, Frank Pilley, Mrs. Warren S. Robinson, adviser, Bob Bradford, President YMCA, Mike Hrisis

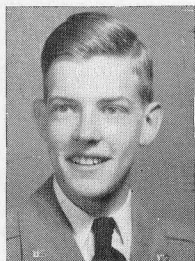

Another great honor came to Augusta this session when Frank Pilley was elected Vice-President of the Natural Bridge Preparatory Y. M. C. A. Conference for 1950.

The distinctive honor that belongs to the Augusta Y. M. C. A. is that it is the oldest preparatory school "Y" in the United States. From the time of its founding, it has grown in quality and quantity of members. Acting from the first day that a new cadet appears at Augusta until the day he graduates, it does much to mold the character of the cadets.

The "Y" issued hand-books on the first day of school so that new cadets could become acquainted with the rules and regulations of the academy. The traditional purchase of the Christmas dinner for the orphans at Lynchburg, Virginia was made this year with funds collected from the corps of cadets. Many other worthy enterprizes have been conducted by the organization also.

A great deal of the credit for this work is due to its officers and cabinet headed by Bob Bradford as president. Milt Miller was vice-president, Frank Pilley, secretary and Howard Lupton, treasurer. Cabinet members were Mike Hrisis, Jay Coulter, Hoyle Miller, Kinnie Moran, Bill Willoughby, Billy Hill and Bob Gayhart.

The faculty adviser to the "Y" is Major P. V. Hoover and the pianist is Mrs. W. S. Robinson. The greater part of the credit is theirs for the advancement of the organization.

THE BAYONET

School Paper Wins 1st Place Honor Award In "Q-S" Contest

Vol. VIII Augusta Military Academy, Fort Defiance, Va., October 22, 1949 No. 1

The Chairman of the Newspaper Awards of the Quill and Scroll Society with headquarters in Chicago, Illinois has announced that the 1948-49 Bayonet has received International First Place Award, needing only thirty-seven points to have the highest Honor Rating presented. The paper was judged on its ability to inform, entertain and influence readers and on its success as a business enterprise.

Much of the credit for the fine showing goes of course to the editor who last year was Lamar Lester of Christiansburg, Virginia.

Editor Buddy, as he was known to all, did much fine writing which appeared throughout the entire paper in all departments. He was a first lieutenant in Company "E", member of the Club, Roller Riffmen and case player. Lamar attended press conference at Washington and Lee University last year was presented with the received by the Bayonet for standing achievement.

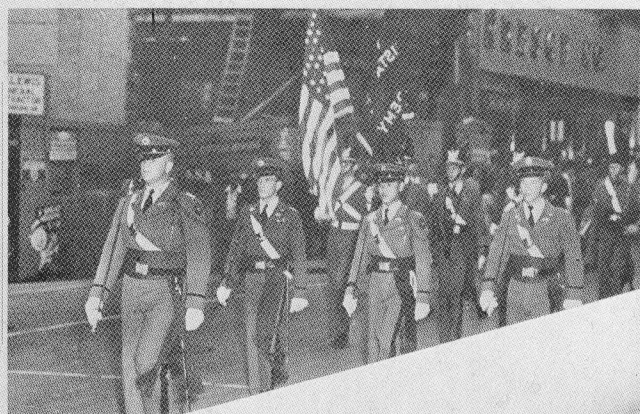

of the main-stays of the was Bob Bradford who is in this year. He wrote historical features which appeared in neighboring literary works throughout. Bob was editor of and the book itself will be an accomplishment in his many office and duties have prevented him from editing the Bayonet during the past three years. He was awarded the Bayonet for their work last year.

Bob Bradford Publishes Ad Astra Paper

The Ad Astra Paper is published by the alumni, class of 1949 of Augusta Military Academy. Its editor, Cadet Captain Bob Bradford, felt that the alumni should have some way to keep in touch with each other after leaving. He thought the solution to this problem was through the "Ad Astra." The paper is very interesting and keeps everyone posted on the happenings and new activities of Augusta. Through it, a reunion has been arranged next summer in Washington for the 1949 alumni. Cadet Bradford, a four year man, is connected with many meritorious activities. Some of these are: President of the Beta Club, Adviser to the Beta Club.

Under the general direction of Major Paul Hoover, with Mrs. Warren S. Robinson as advisor, the cadet Y. M. C. A. has been an integral part of the school life for more than half a century. Cadet Robert E. Bradford, Blacksburg, is president; Cadet J. Milton Miller, Beckley, W. Va., vice-president; Cadet Franklin Pilley, Norfolk, secretary; and Cadet James Lupton, Belhaven, N. C., is treasurer. The "Y" meets each Sunday night during the school year and an outstanding speaker is secured for each meeting.

Rotary Sons Entertained

Sons and daughters of Rotarians from Mary Baldwin College, Stuart Hall, S.M.A., and A.M.A. were guests of the Staunton Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting Tuesday, Oct. 11. The future Rotarians left A.M.A. at noon on the school bus. After eating a full course dinner, they listened to the principal speaker of the day, Dr. Lewis Gibbs. He spoke on the interesting and humorous points of this vicinity. He gave a small history of the present Rotary Club and described some of the schools of the Sherandoosh Valley. Those attending from A.M.A. were: Ward, Stanley, Evans, Luttrell, Brooke, Woodward, Mosier, Argle B., Angle P., Osborne, Myers, Keller, Ward, P., Lopez, Cigaretella, Brussard, Calvo, Herrera, (Continued on page 4)

1950 RECALL

Actually since September of 1949, the RECALL Staff has been hard at work preparing the literary work which is here now exhibited. The results of these long and toilsome hours are here shown in this annual which they produced. The book is full of new ideas and pictures including many action shots of athletics and self-explanatory shots. New and original write-ups for the seniors were incorporated in the book and these should be treasured greatly by the graduating class of the year.

In the national contest held at Minneapolis by the National Scholastic Press Association last year in which all prep and high schools in the country participated, the 1949 RECALL missed getting first place by only a small margin of twenty-five points. The Southern Interscholastic Press Association also awarded the RECALL second prize in its Dixie-land wide search for the top school annual.

It is not easy to secure advertisements and spend practically all of your free time thinking up new ideas and putting them down for posterity, but the cadets on this staff spent much of their time doing just that.

Without a doubt, the 1950 RECALL will be a challenge to those to come as well as a leader among those which have already appeared. It should be treasured as an item which will bring a feeling of pleasant nostalgia to the heart and mind of everyone who was in any way connected with the corps of 1949-50.

THE BAYONET

The Bayonet was founded in the early nineteen hundreds and was published until 1932 when the paper ceased publication for five years. Since that time the Bayonet has become better each year by the hard work of the faculty advisor and the few hard working cadets. The Bayonet is under great difficulty for it is a self supported organization. The publication raises its money by advertisements, subscriptions, and patron contributions which is barely enough for the cadets to get by on without going bankrupt. Although the paper has many difficulties it has continuously made progress and last year it took first place in the Quill & Scroll contest. It then went on to win the second place award in the National Scholastic Press Association contest which it has great hopes of winning this year. The Bayonet has changed the entire set up of the paper and the material found in the paper is far superior to any ever used by the paper in previous years. The essays, exchange columns, and features have made more people interested in the paper and the publication stands high in its class everywhere.

We honor the Bayonet staff who in turn are honored to have been instrumental in obtaining these honors for their Alma Mater.

BETA CLUB

Seated: Ellman, Pilley, Hill, W. R., Bradford, Lupton, Hantsch and Willoughby, W.

Standing: Grace, Cohen, Cole, Starnes and Long

Being founded only a few years ago, the Augusta Beta Club has advanced tremendously since its beginning. It is an organization of cadets with high character, good minds and high morals.

Foot-ball programs were published and sponsored by the Beta Club. A meeting room was obtained and regular meetings were held and conducted by parliamentary procedure. Bills were presented, discussed and voted upon, adding much to the general knowledge of the members.

The president of the Beta Club is Bob Bradford who has done much to advance this and other organizations. John Cole was elected vice-president; Howard Lupton, secretary; and Art Cohen, treasurer. Members of the club were Billy Hill, Alan Pearson, Ed Click, Jimmy Starnes, Paul Long, Eddie Ellman, Bob Hantsch, Bill Willoughby, Bill Grace, Frank Pilley and Hoyle Miller. Captain Robert S. Hart is the faculty advisor.

BIBLE CLASS

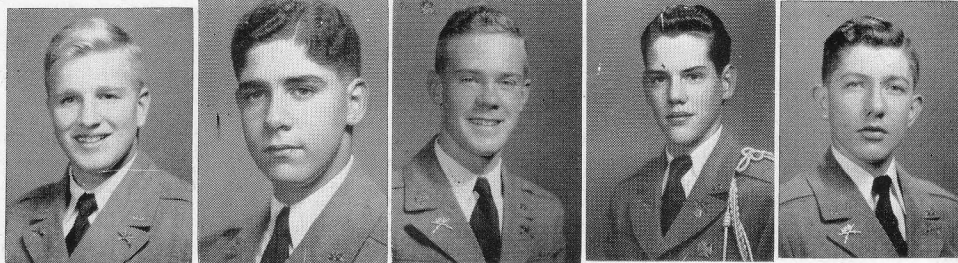

The Bible Class was started at Augusta several years ago with the high purpose of teaching the cadets about the Bible. This class is composed of volunteer students who have an earnest desire to learn something about the Bible.

The class meets under the supervision of the Reverend McBryde, Pastor of Augusta Stone Church. He deserves much sincere thanks from every member of the class; for he was instrumental in giving a great deal to each and everyone.

Mr. McBryde, who makes the classes very interesting, assigns various questions to each member for discussion at different intervals. The entire class joins in the discussions and sometime arguments insue. This is very beneficial, as it inables each boy to give his opinions and ideas concerning the subject under discussion, helping not only the boy, but the entire group.

Much credit is due to the officers of the class who were elected at the first meeting. Cadet Alex Wattay as president led this organization thru a most successful year.

CICERONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

This Literary Society has the honor of being the oldest continuous organization of its kind in the country. It has grown and drawn interest since it was founded and has accomplished its purpose of creating interest in literary works of today and of yesterday. This year's society was presided over by Authur Cohen who has done much for the advancement of literature at Augusta. Gary Malamut filled the office of vice-president, Jim Lupton was secretary, Allen Pearson acted as treasurer and Dave Stanley handled the job of sergeant-at-arms admirably.

JUNIOR CICERONIAN SOCIETY

This Society is organized for the same purpose as the Senior Literary Society but on a small scale. All of the juniors at Augusta attend the Society meetings and take part in them. The President for this annum was Cadet Bob Stivers who performed his duties without criticism. Other officers were Cadet Pat McGinley, vice-president; Charles King, Secretary; Jack Goldstein, Treasurer; and Tom Hailey, sergeant-at-arms.

ROLLER RIFLES

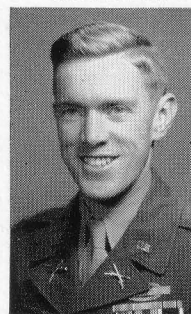

This is the fourth year of the functioning of the Roller Rifles, the crack drill platoon of Augusta. It is an honorary platoon made up of the most military and best drilled cadets in the school for show and competitive purposes. The platoon was organized to perpetuate the memory of the late Lieutenant Charles S. Roller, III, and has as its honorary commander, Col. C. S. Roller, Jr. The honorary vice-commander is Miss Linda Moorman Roller, daughter of Lt. Roller. The organization was founded by Capt. George E. Michael, assistant commandant at Augusta last year. The faculty adviser and drill supervisor this year was Capt. Edwin M. Aldrich.

To become a member of the organization, you must be approved by the other members of the group, by the Professor of Military Science and Tactics and by the Honorary Commander. This has grown to be the highest rank of military recognition at the academy.

Among some of the high-lights during the past nine months, were the trips to the inauguration of the governor of Virginia in Richmond in January and to the Christmas parade in Staunton in late December of 1949. Also, the trip to the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival was an outstanding event on the agenda.

Chairman

The decorating committee for this year was supervised by Cadet Click and Lt. Savedge. They have been both able advisers and are both swell people in that they are hard workers and always on hand when you want them. The other members of this committee were; Saunders, Myers, Sandridge, Twyman, Ayers, Moore, Rohr, Yel-lott, Hodge, Harrison, Miller, J., Russell, Willey and Gamewell, T.

The fellas did a fine job and their fellow cadets thank them sincerely.

FINAL BALL

Traditional Figure Formation at Final Ball

FINALS

All is bathed in golden splendor
As the moon shined through the trees;
Each shadowy twig bends gently—
Kissed by the cool summer breeze.
Faint music drifts sweet through the night
From the gym where dancers sway;
Sentinels walk languidly by,
Waiting for the break of day.
Cars are parked where e'er they can squeeze;
Our parents and girls are here.
We've showed them what we've learned to do
And at length the end is near.
Lonely shadows and cozy nooks
Hide many a love struck pair;—
While others walk on moonlit paths
And joy is everywhere.
Tomorrow we'll leave each other,—
Sad tears will drown our glee,
But tonight is our night of dreams—
Fairyland for you and me!

COTILLION CLUB

This year's Cotillion Club has well earned the praise of every member of the corps. Carrying on the individual membership plan inaugurated last year, it has sponsored dances of remarkable success. The officers of the Club, though for the most part inexperienced, laid into their job with praiseworthy vigor, and became masters of the art almost immediately.

This year's president was Tommy Clements who was the secretary of the Club last year. Tommy devoted much of his time and effort to the affairs of the Club, and these affairs have met with unequalled success.

Vice-president of the Club was Bill Paxton, a five year man. Bill has long been among the foremost Augusta socialites, and his efforts have been invaluable to the Club.

Alan Pearson was chosen the Club's treasurer. In him, the corps made an excellent choice. Alan's bookkeeping skill, heretofore unknown to everyone, went far to make ends meet.

The Club's secretary was Authur Cohen. He has been connected with the management of our social functions for several years. An experienced hand at that sort of work, his service was largely of an advisory nature.

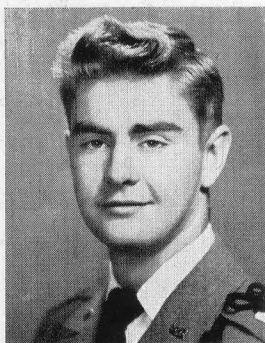

FINAL BALL

This year's Final Ball was among the best ever held. Headed by Bill Paxton and ably advised by Lt. C. E. Savedge, the dance was an event which will long be remembered by those who took part in it.

Bill Paxton who was elected president, worked long and diligently to attain the end—a successful dance. This end has been successfully accomplished.

Ably seconding the president were Jack Russell, Billy Hill, Tommy Clements and Art Cohen. Their energies and time for the last few months were almost equally divided between the Cotillion Club and the Final Ball, both receiving the full benefit of their talents. Without their efforts, for they are well known as promoters, the dance would almost certainly have been less successful.

The work of decorating the gymnasium was under the personal supervision of Edwin Click—the cadet who was instrumental in making the formal dances the success they were thru the medium of original ideas in transforming the gym into places out of this world. Again in this—the final formal of the year—he outdid himself in his efforts. He chose as his assistant chairman Bob Tomczak who did a fine job.

Ably assisting the chairman of the decorating committee were Du Val, Harrison, Hodge, Long, Miller J., Rohr, Russell, Sandridge, Shepard, Saunders W., Yellott, and Willey. Without the efforts of these loyal assistants the dance could not have been the success it was.

The music for the Final Ball was furnished by Bruce "Bubbles" Becker and his orchestra from Richmond.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, dear classmates, now that the fourth world war is over, we can, in 1975, again turn our minds to thoughts of peacetime and future career. We cannot help but wonder what has happened to all our buddies of the AMA Class of 1950, and how they are making out in life. Well, wonder no longer, dear classmates, for I, Jim Starnes, will take you on a trip, renewing old friendships of days gone by.

In fact, even as we enter our rocket ship for our journey, we indirectly come in contact with old AMA boys, for the firm of Chandler, Shappee, and Hunter Rockets, Inc., has built our ship. As we recall, the three presidents of the corporation after their graduation rapidly advanced in the automotive field, but as of 1975 have complete monopoly on the rocket ship business.

Our first stop is none other than the "Big Town," Brooklyn. As we leave our ship our suitcases are carried by a porter of magnificent build, and, upon noting our admiration, said that he acquired it at the body-building course at the private gymnasium of Duffey, LaFollette, and Schimmel, on 34th. Street, just off the Bowery. We decide to make Brooklyn our headquarters for our nation-wide tour, and, after crossing a magnificent bridge, which incidentally was constructed by the civil engineering firm of Pearson, Pearson, and Pearson, Inc., the nationally famous "Broken Arms Hotel" looms into sight.

As we enter the lobby, we notice that the dance band of Jimmy Freeman is featured as dinner music in the "Blue Room"; we also see that Fred Mather-Smith is the visiting guest musician for the week. Fred also has his own band, and we must say that his musicians have the most novel costumes of any we have seen: purple mess jackets and green shorts.

We have very little trouble procuring rooms, as the desk clerks are, Jimmy Bowman and Dick Wilde, and the owner of the "Broken Arms Hotel", Gary Malamut. In fact, among the three, they outfitted us with a modest sixty-five room penthouse.

Our little penthouse is certainly well taken care of, with all meals served by the gin-u-wine French headwaiter, Jimmy McDowell. Incidentally, Jimmy took Spanish back at dear old AMA.

Our morning paper, the "Daily Blast", edited by Howard Lupton, and regularly delivered to us by Jack Barrett, truly brings to national fame many of our graduates of the Class of '50.

Indeed on the front page we see that Dave Stanley is on the Dixiecrat ticket for President of the United States, and on the sports page we find that a new "Super-professional football league" has been organized, with the "Georgia Peaches", the "Pennsy Panthers", and the "Upstate Manglers", coached by Billie Guthrie, George Detwiler, and Dick Nolan, respectively, are the leading contenders for the national pro-championship team.

Also on the sports page we find that the combination of Ben Angle, Dave Ellman, Brock Matthews, and Miles Willard, all having made All-American in basketball, are now the members of the editorial staff of "Health and Strength Magazine."

Out on Broadway we see what at first we think to be a Fruehauf truck in the middle of the street, but upon approaching it we find it to be none other than Andy Chistopoulos, who is the traffic cop on duty at the corner of Broadway and 42nd. As you will recall, he attended the Citadel, and now is the most military cop on the force. However he carries it too far, as he salutes members of the Salvation Army and all hotel doormen.

CLASS PROPHECY

A current feature on the "Great White Way" is Herm Matthes, who is doing his famous PX routine on the stage of the Hippidrome. Herm's act is preceded by the trained dog act directed by Dick Gibbs, national president of Sigma Chi, and Mac McCarthy. We find the star bulldog of the first act to be none other than Art Cohen, who usually steals the show with his growling. However, the top act of Broadway, and indeed the feature act of the nation, is Mac Saunders, AMA star swimmer, who jumps from the top of a hundred foot tower into a wet sponge.

We notice that all the former neon lights of Broadway are now lighted by atomic energy, thanks to a miraculous invention of William Willoughby, the foremost scientist of the day. At present he is working to perfect his latest invention: reversible roller skates for backward children.

As this is mostly a pleasure cruise, we take a steamer, (now run by perpetual motion), to Souse America, where we believe Ed Click to be, but upon inquiring we find that he is at the North Pole trying to sell refrigerators to the Eskimos. Continuing around the Cape of No Hope in our steamer, which I forgot to mention is captained by Ed Glover, an Annapolis graduate, we arrive at Lower Slobovia, the land of the Doo-Doo Bird. Here we find that Tommy Clements, the "great socialite" of the Gold Coast of California, really is earning his great fortunes by selling members in the "Association For the Prevention of Snakes' Wearing Concave Monacles". Also in Lower Slobovia we find Ted Steele, who is installing a better jungle telegraph for the natives. It consists of bass horn players stationed throughout the jungle, the latter being instructed by Jim Weston. Dick Young is also very popular in Slobovia, as he is forming an honor drill platoon, consisting entirely of chimpanzees. The leader of the platoon is Mike Hrisis.

As the beautiful land of Lower Slobovia sinks slowly in the setting sun of the West, we look forward with great anticipation to seeing "Buck" Anderson wrestle for the national championship in the professional "grunt and groan society". As we arrive in Los Angeles, we are almost run down by the Escape Car No. 4 of "Murder Inc.", whose president is Ronald "Smiles" Shillinglaw, one of our buddies of AMA days.

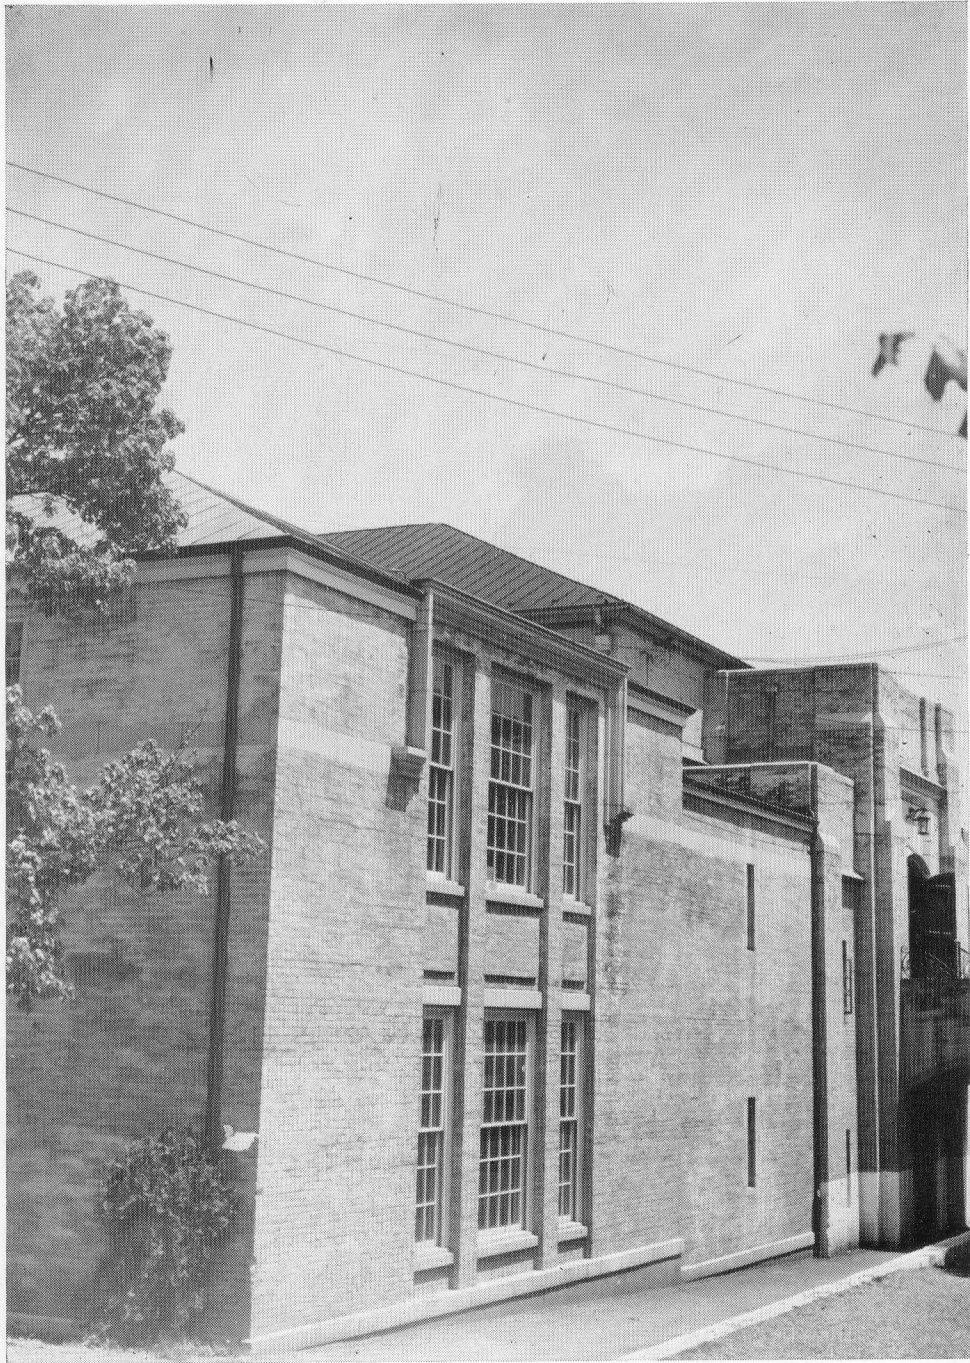

Present at "Buck's" match are two members of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce, Ron Sollod and Lynn Shabdach, and as we leave the fair city in a "Greymutt" Bus, we see the team of Jack Russell, Billy Hill, and Billy Paxton playing "Three Musketeers" out on a golf course in suburban Los Angeles. The residents thought it to be a calvary charge, and at once a detachment of troops under Col. Bill Grace, III was sent to the scene, with air support by Benito Chang and his Flying Tigers.

Continuing through the Middle West in our "Greymutt" Bus, driven by Ken Moran, we find that John Cole is coaching lacrosse in a midwestern college, and in that same college we find Milton ("Fat Boy") Miller coaching wrestling.

Teaching Bible and coaching baseball at Kalamazoo U. is Vernon Crockett, the star of the AMA Tigers back in '49 and '50, and also near Kalamazoo is Tom Price, who is taking life easy on his rhubarb plantation.

We read in "Boys' Life" that Bob Hantsch, having graduated from Annapolis, is now an admiral in the Navy, and has received The Order of the Scrambled Egg with crossed cucumbers for his invention of a collapsible aircraft carrier. Now I, Jim Starnes, now an admiral in the Underground Balloon Corps, bid you a pleasant adieu with the thought, "To the stars through difficulty."

The Seventh Pin-Up Queen of A. M. A. Cadet Corps

The Augusta Girl For 1950

Miss Reba Ruth Reynolds

The Augusta Pin-Up Queen Dance, one of the highlights of the social season, was held this year in April in the Memorial Gymnasium. This was the seventh annual dance.

The Princesses To The Augusta Girl For 1950

Miss Bette Linder

Miss Paula Bodecker

Miss Frances Lawrence

Miss Reba Ruth Reynolds of Madiscn College and Chatham, Virginia, was chosen as the Pin-Up Queen for 1950. Miss Reynolds, a Sophomore at Madison, was escorted by Cadet Herman Matthes of Wilmington, Del.

The Pin-Up Queen Committee chose as first princess Miss Paula Bodecker of Mary Baldwin College and Texas. Cadet Hobert Tomczak of Brooklyn, New York sponsored Miss Bodecker. Miss Bette Linder of Fairfax Hall and Birmingham, Ala., was chosen second princess. Miss Linder was sponsored by Cadet Robert Broussard of Louisiana.

Miss Frances Lawrence of Stuart Hall and Blacksburg, Va., was chosen third princess of Miss Reynold's court. She was sponsored by Cadet Charles Starr of New Jersey.

Inaugurated by the Bayonet Staff and the Cotillion Club of 1943-44, the affair has gained in competition and popularity each year. The Queen and her court were honored by a dance, being crowned by Colonel Roller in a very impressive ceremony. They were honored later by a special movie and a hay-ride. Finally, the regal group received a parade in their honor by the entire corps of cadets. The music for the dance was furnished by Joe Gleese and his Orchestra and girls attended from all surround towns and schools and from various parts of states throughout the country.

The business part of the Annual would fall far short without the many loyal advertisers which always support and back up the A. M. A. RECALL. To the advertisers we owe more than thanks, in fact, without their co-operation more than one third of our total revenue would be missing. Consequently, the editors sincerely trust that each individual will give the following pages careful consideration. We hope that each cadet and all A. M. A. supporters will extensively patronize the advertisers who so willingly made the publishing of this book possible.

MAJOR H. D. DEANE,

Fort Defiance Virginia

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed enormous industrial vitality and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE HAVE TAUGHT US! PRINTING PAYS US ONLY WHEN IT PAYS YOU!

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!

When the last of our drills are over,
And the band plays Auld Lang Syne;
When the old boys leave us forever;
And the teachers are gone from our mind;
When young lads are gone for the summer
And the barracks are deserted and dead;
A feeling of sadness comes o'er us
And we know we cannot be glad.

'Tis hard to lose school chums forever,
And friends that are dearer than life;
Like a big family disbanding
As they enter life's long hard strife.
We shall think of school teachers and boys;
Of each with a smile and a tear
And hope for a happy reunion
Some time in the future that's near.

We'll miss the old school in the country,
And friends who were always true blue,
We'll think of our good times together,
And also the burdens we drew.
We'll be glad when September comes
With football and the autumn winds;
But we'll miss the graduates a lot——
The boys whom we've left behind.

—W. G. C. Jr.
